

Elmer L. Cory

Elmer L. Cory, 50, Monticello, died Saturday, February 27, 1982, at St. Clare Hospital, Monroe, following a lingering illness. Born in Boone County, Ind., on May 17, 1931, he was the son of Elmer E. and Mary M. Therkeld Cory. He married Antonia Leutenegger on April 10, 1955 in Monroe. They lived in Middleton and moved to the Monticello area in 1964, where he worked as a self-employed plasterer.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, March 2, in the Zweifel United Church of Christ, Monticello. Rev. Charles G. Workman officiated and burial was in Highland Cemetery, Monticello.

He was a veteran of the Korean Conflict, being inducted on March 8, 1951 and discharged on Dec. 8, 1952. He served overseas for 13 1/2 months. He was a member of the Amstutz-Marty Post 256 Monticello, and the Cecil Jones Post Veterans of Foreign Wars, Monroe.

Survivors include his wife, Antonia; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Cory, Middleton; three daughters, Mrs. Duane (Cheryl) Torkelson, Mrs. Brad (Catherine) Timm, and Cindy Cory, all of Monroe; one son, Darrell, Monticello; two brothers, William, Middleton, and Richard, Dane and two grandchildren.

Pallbearers were nephews, Matt Cory, Dane; William Cory, Middleton; Leon Fiez Jr., Deerfield; Robert Fiez, Madison; Dale Leutenegger, Oregon, and William Leutenegger, Monroe.