

John V. Dooly
April 8, 1884 – July 23, 1956
John V. Dooly Dies in Monroe

John V. Dooly, 72, Route 2, Monticello, died this morning at 7:30 in St. Clare hospital, where he had been a medical patient since Thursday.

Mr. Dooly was born April 8, 1884, the son of Richard and Celia O'Donnell Dooly. He received his schooling in Monticello schools. He was married in 1905 to Tessie Lewis. She died in 1906. Mr. Dooly was married again on Jan. 24, 1912, in Dayton, to Margaret Pratt. Following their marriage they farmed in the Monticello area most of the time, except for 10 years in Spring Grove Township.

Survivors include his wife, two sons, Gerald, Janesville, and Dave, Beloit; a daughter, Mrs. Rudy. (Alice) Ammon, Monroe; 11 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren, and one brother, Henry, Monroe. A sister, Margaret, and two brothers, George and Richard, preceded him in death.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday in St. Victor's Catholic church. Rev. E. C. McCollow will officiate. Burial will be in the Dayton cemetery. The rosary will be read tomorrow night at 8 in the Voegeli funeral home, Monticello.