

Leon B. Elmer, Jr.
Jan. 30, 1938 - June 12, 1989

Leon B. Elmer Jr., 51, of 619 Washington St., Monticello, died today, June 12, 1989. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Clare Hospital.

Born Jan. 30, 1938, in Monroe, he was the son of Leon B. and Linda (Prill) Elmer. He graduated from Monticello High School in 1955.

His marriage to the former Nancy L. Weber took place Sept. 26, 1959, in Albany United Methodist Church. They farmed on the Elmer home farm in Mount Pleasant Township until 1948 (?) when their son took over the farming operation. They then moved to Monticello. For the past 11 years, Mr. Elmer was employed at the Walnut Grove Plant at Monticello.

He was a member of Mount Olive Lutheran Church, Monroe, and the Monticello Lions Club.

He is survived by his wife, Nancy; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Elmer, Madison; three daughters, Vicki Elmer, Madison; Mrs. Mark (Lori) Peterson, Monroe, and Sally Elmer, at home; a brother, LeRoy Elmer, Madison; a sister, Mrs. LeRoy (LaVon) Aagard of Wadena, Minn., and three grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, Mike, Feb. 15, 1987, and a daughter, Wendy, Feb. 17, 1965.

Funeral services are 1:30 p.m. Wednesday in Mount Olive Lutheran Church. The Rev. Michael Wolff will officiate. Interment is in Greenwood Cemetery, Monroe.

Friends may call from 5 to 9 p.m. Tuesday at Stuessy Funeral Home.
