

Wendi Sue Elmer
June 23, 1964 - Feb. 17, 1965

Elmer Daughter Dies In Crib; Pneumonia Is Ruled as Cause

Wendi Sue Elmer, eight months old, died on Wednesday of last week at her home in Mt. Pleasant township, about three miles south of Monticello.

She was found dead in her crib at about 11 a. m. by her mother. Results of an autopsy showed that the child died of acute pneumonia.

She was born in the St. Clare hospital, Monroe, June 23, 1964, the daughter of Leon and Nancy Weber Elmer, Jr.

Other survivors include one brother, Michael, 4 years old, one sister, Vicki, aged 2; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Elmer, Sr., Monroe, maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Weber, Freeport, Ill, paternal great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Elmer, Monroe, and maternal great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Weber, Albany.

Funeral Held Friday

Funeral services were held at 1:30 Friday afternoon at the Voegeli funeral home here, Rev. R. F. Bittorf, Pastor of Mt. Olive Lutheran church, Monroe, and the Rev. Robert M. Corl, Jr., pastor of the Madison Silent Lutheran church, officiated.

Interment was in Greenwood cemetery, Monroe. Pallbearers were LeRoy Elmer, Monroe, and Daniel Weber, Albany.