Mrs. Ben F. Feldt Succumbs to Illness
Services Scheduled At Church Thursday

Mrs. Marie Feldt, 47, wife of Ben F. Feldt, prominent farmer and stock dealer, died in St. Clare hospital last night at 9:25 from a cerebral hemorrhage. The Feldt home is at 515 20th avenue.

Mrs. Feldt had suffered the stroke a week ago Monday and entered the hospital immediately. Her condition had been critical throughout her hospitalization.

She was the only child of the late Fred and Elizabeth Voegeli Kundert and was born at New Glarus Oct. 23, 1901. Her father died Oct. 23, 1910, and her mother July 30, 1933.

Graduate of Monroe High

She was baptized Marie Barbara Kundert Dec. 1, 1901, at New Glarus and confirmed April 1, 1917, at St. John's church, Monroe. Mrs. Feldt attended grade school in New Glarus and was graduated from Monroe high school. She also attended Downer college, Milwaukee, for one year.

The Feldts were married Nov. 5, 1921, at St. John's church by Rev. R. A. Schuh and took up farming in Mt. Pleasant township where they remained until October, 1947, when they moved back to Monroe.

Mrs. Feldt was active in the Mt. Pleasant Homemakers club, St. Omar Eastern Star chapter and in St. John's church. She was a former member of Monticello Zwingli Evangelical church. Her principal interests were concentrated, however, in her home and the welfare of her family.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Feldt leaves one son, Wallace K., who operates the Mt. Pleasant farm, and two daughters, Kathleen and Ruth, both Monroe high school students.
