

Gaylord Fenton

1859 - 1941

Gaylord Fenton, 85, died on Thursday at his farm home, six and one-half miles northwest of Albany, after an illness of two weeks with flu and complications.

Mrs. Fenton, formerly Minnie Nesbit, has been a patient in the Madison General hospital since she was injured in an auto accident on Feb. 13. Other survivors are two daughters and one son.

Burial was on, Sunday in the Attica cemetery.