

ALICE GENGLER
? - January 3, 2000

Alice (Schloegel) Gengler died January 3, 2000 at Meriter Health Center in Madison at age 93. She was born in January 19, 1906 in Milwaukee, the daughter of Henry Schloegel and Johanna (Quickert) Schloegel of Milwaukee. She graduated from Washington High School in Milwaukee and received a B.A. Cum Laude in Economics from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1927, where she was also a member of the riding team and Phi Mu Sorority. She obtained an M.S. in Social Work from a school that later became part of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. She was married to Carl Gengler in Milwaukee in 1927. Carl Gengler was a C.P.A. and was employed for many years as Controller at T.A. Chapman Company, Milwaukee, and from 1957 until his retirement in 1966 as a Vice President of Wilson's Department Store in Gainesville, FL. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1983, by her brother Henry Schloegel of Milwaukee, and by her sister Elizabeth (Schloegel) Brauer of Wauwatosa in 1999.

Alice Gengler was a social worker for Catholic Charities in Milwaukee until the birth of her son, and then later became Director of Social Service at Sunland Training Center in Gainesville, FL in the 1960s. After she and her husband retired in 1966, Mrs. Gengler continued to use her social work background as a volunteer at Lee Memorial Hospital in Fort Myers, FL and at Lakes Region General Hospital in Laconia, NH near Moultonborough, where she spent summers from 1976 through 1993. She and her husband enjoyed fishing, swimming, hiking, and camping throughout their life together. She lived in Wauwatosa from 1938 through 1956, in Gainesville, FL from 1957 through 1970, and in Fort Myers Beach and Fort Myers, FL from 1971 until her health required her return to Wisconsin in 1996.

She is survived by a son Michael, born in 1944, who lives in Chicago, IL and rural Monticello, and by many nieces and nephews.

There will be no services or visitation, but the family requests that memorials be made to the University of Wisconsin Foundation (Alice Gengler Graduate Economics Fellowship), P.O. Box 8860, Madison. WI 53708-8860.
