

JOHN B. HOSKINS

John B. Hoskins, 61, Monticello, died Friday, June 27, 1980, at St. Clare Hospital, Monroe, after an extended illness.

He was born in Dodgeville on Dec. 9, 1918, the son of Rueben and Lillian Williams Hoskins. He attended Dodgeville schools and graduated from the UW—Madison in 1947.

On Sept. 15, 1942, he was married to the former Frances L. Voegeli in Monticello, where he had been a resident since 1947. He joined the U.S. Army on July 1, 1941, and was discharged from the US. Signal Corps in 1946 as a captain.

He was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello Lions Club, member and past commander of the Amstutz-Marty Post American Legion, New Glarus Masonic Lodge 310, Scottish Rite Bod and Zor Shrine, and a member of the UW-Green County Alumni. He was employed by the State of Wisconsin as an insurance examiner until ill health forced him to retire.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, July 1, at the Zwingli United Church of Christ. Rev. Charles G. Workman officiated and burial was in Highland Cemetery, Monticello. Military rights were held at the graveside. Masonic services were held on Monday evening.

Survivors include his wife; stepmother, Jessie; one son, Douglas, Muskego, and one daughter, Mrs. Thomas (Jean) Hefty, Madison; one brother, David, Richland Center and four grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his mother in 1939, father in 1954 and one sister, Mrs. Phil Kammerer, Milwaukee, in 1979.

Honorary pallbearers were M.W. Reineman, DeKalb, Ill.; Howard R. Steinman, Bellevue, Wash., Fred Abbott, Thomas Brusveen, Karl H. Freitag, Leo C. Gempler, Ernest Roberts, Gilman Schmid, Max Schuett, Edward C. Soper and Dr. Ray A. Woodruff, Monticello.

Pallbearers were Hugh Ganser, Lodi; Leon Hartman, Madison, and Carl J. Dick, Donald Knobel, Wilbert E. Stauffer and Clarence Zweifel.
