

Lucille Klooster

A former Monroe resident, Mrs. C. J. (Lucille) Klooster, 59, Monticello, died at 1:30 am. today, Wednesday, Nov. 6, 1974, in St. Clare Hospital. She had been a medical patient there since Sept. 30.

The former Lucille S. Trukenbrod was the wife of a Monticello veterinarian, and daughter of Mrs. Will E. Trukenbrod, 2230 15th St., Monroe. She was born Nov. 23, 1914, a daughter of Will E. and Scelina Boss Trukenbrod. She graduated from Monroe High School, Class of 1932, and from Miss Brown's Business College, Milwaukee. She and Dr. Klooster were married June 20, 1942 in St. John's United Church of Christ, Monroe.

At the time of her marriage she was a stenographer in the Farm Security Administration at its district office in Spooner and he was a veterinarian in the US. Dept. of Agriculture, bureau of animal industry. They moved to Monticello in 1946 and since then Dr. Klooster has been in private practice.

Mrs. Klooster was a member of Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

Surviving are her husband; her mother; a daughter, Mrs. William (Kay) Dickson, Monticello; a son, Steven, Madison; a brother, W. Karl Trukenbrod, Glencoe, Ill.; a sister, Mrs. Jack (Marian) Sery, Milwaukee, and two grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her father on Oct. 17, 1947. The Trukenbrod family: of three generations had served Monroe as druggists for more than 110 years, beginning at the close of the Civil War and ending with Will E.'s death.

Funeral services will be at 1:30 pm. Friday, Nov. 8, in Zwingli Church, with her pastor, Rev. Charles G. Workman officiating.

Friends may call at the Memorial Lounge of Zwingli Church after 5 pm. Thursday. The family will receive friends there after 7 that evening.