

John Legler
Jan. 1, 1866 – April 1938

Aged Citizen of Belleville Passes After Long Illness

Funeral services for John Legler, 72 years of age, Belleville, who passed away on Tuesday evening of last week at the home of his brother, Abraham Legler, Belleville, following an illness which had its inception last fall, were conducted at 2 Saturday afternoon in the Voegeli funeral home.

Rev. A. Muehlmeier, pastor of the Monticello Reformed church, officiated. Interment was in Highland cemetery.

John Legler was born Jan. 1, 1866, a short distance west of New Glarus, a son of John and Barbara Schindler Legler. He spent his entire life following the farming occupation and lived on farms near New Glarus, Oregon, and Belleville. In 1896 he was united in marriage to Elsbeth Schuler. She preceded him in death in January, 1937.

Mr. Legler was a member of the New Glarus Reformed church.

He is survived by a son, George Legler, New Glarus, three brothers, Andrew and David, Mt. Pleasant township, and Abraham, Belleville, and one sister, Mrs. John C. Blum, Monticello. He was preceded in death by his wife, three sons, a sister, Mrs. J. C. Steinman, Sr., who passed away in Monticello about a year ago, and a brother, Nicholas Legler, also of Monticello, who passed away last Summer.