

John Legler
Sept. 5, 1904 – October 1929

Verona Young Man Buried Here Friday

Funeral services for John Legler, 25 years of age, son of John Legler, Sr., Verona, who died at a state sanitarium near Superior Oct. 8, after an illness of several years, were held here at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon from the Voegeli undertaking parlors. Rev. A. Muehlmeier, pastor of the Reformed church, officiated and burial was in Highland cemetery.

Mr. Legler, who had entered the Superior sanitarium on Sept. 28, was a native of Brooklyn township, having been born there on Sept. 5, 1904, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Legler. At the age of 14, he entered the state school at Chippewa Falls where he remained for seven years. Since returning from Chippewa Falls, he had lived at Verona.

Besides the parents, he is survived by one brother, George, residing on a farm near Verona.
