

CYRIL LOVELAND

Cyril J. (Cy) Loveland, 74, a resident of Riverview Apartments, Albany, died Tuesday, Aug. 5, 1980, at Pleasant View Nursing Home, Monroe.

He was born in Monticello, Jan. 6, 1906, the son of Frank and Mabel Jordan Loveland. He attended Monticello High School and was married to Margaret Schmoldt in April, 1938.

He had been involved in various business enterprises in Monroe, including manager of Loveland Dry Cleaners, a dairy, liquor store and tavern, and Cy's Brat House. He was past governor of the Monroe Moose Lodge and attended the Albany Methodist Church.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Aug. 9, in the Stuessy Funeral Home, Monroe, Rev. David R Werner, Monroe, officiated and burial was in the Salem Cemetery, Wales, Wis.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Ronald (Tana Kae) Lutterman, Aurora, Colo.; five grandchildren, and a brother, Arnold Loveland, Monroe.

Preceding him in death were his parents, a son, Larry, on May 19, 1978, in a motorcycle accident; a brother, Archie, and a sister, Violet Loveland,