

Alice M. Mackey

April 28, 1860 – April 1, 1935

Mrs, Frank Mackey Dies at County Seat Grew to Womanhood on Farm Northeast of Village

A resident of the Monticello vicinity for many years prior to her marriage, Mrs. Frank Mackey, 74 years of age, Monroe, died in her home in that city at 5 p. m. Monday following an illness of more than two years. Complications proved fatal.

Mr. Mackey, who was stricken with illness last Thursday, is reported improved. He is under a nurse's care.

Native of Ireland

A native of County Tipperary, Ireland, Alice M. Carroll was born there April 28, 1860, the daughter of John and Ellen Bates Carroll. Coming to the United States with her parents in 1879, she settled with them on a farm, several miles northeast of Monticello, where she grew to womanhood. Her marriage to Frank Mackey took place at Dayton June 29, 1904. For a number of years they have resided at 2256 Sixth street, Monroe. Affiliated with St. Victor's Catholic church at Monroe and its Altar society, Mrs. Mackey was also a member of the Women's Relief corps.

Sister, Brother Survive

Besides the husband, Mrs. Mackey is survived by a sister, Miss Ella Carroll, and a brother, A. B. Carroll, both of Monticello; and two nieces, Mrs. T. J. Lacey, South Wayne, and Miss Eileen Carroll, Madison.

Funeral services were conducted at 9 a. m. today in the Knight & Voelkli funeral home and at 9:30 in St. Victor's Catholic church at Monroe. Rev. E. C. McCallow, pastor of the church, officiated and interment was in Calvary cemetery.