

Hilda C. Marty

Mrs. Edward W. (Hilda C.) Marty, 84, rural Monticello, lifelong Washington Township resident, died Tuesday, March 3, 1981, in St. Clare Hospital, Monroe, following a six-month illness. She was last hospitalized on Monday.

She was the former Hildegard Christina Wittwer, daughter of Gottlieb and Ellen Legler Wittwer, born April 15, 1896, on the Wittwer homestead farm, Washington Township. She attended the Marty rural school. On Jan. 7, 1915, she married Edward W. Marty, in Swiss United Church of Christ, New Glarus.

They farmed on the Marty homestead farm and later moved to the present farm, also in Washington Township, where she had lived since.

Mrs Marty was a member of Zwingli United Church of Christ Monticello, and its Ladies' Aid Society and was a past president of the Friendship Circle. She was also a member of the New Glarus Chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. John J. (Eleanor) Stauffer, Monticello, and Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Monroe; two sons, Dr. Edward W. Marty, Madison, and Thomas G. Marty, Marshfield; one brother, Clarence Wittwer, DeKalb, Ill.; one sister, Mrs. Wilma Freitag, Batavia, Ill., and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday in Zwingli United Church of Christ. Rev. Charles G. Workman officiated Burial was in Highland Cemetery, Monticello.

Preceding her in death were her husband on Feb. 19, 1978, and two brothers, Huldreich and Walter Wittwer.