

John C. Marty Sr.

Nov. 4, 1891 – Nov. 1, 1952

Rites Scheduled For J.C. Marty Sr.

Services for John C. Marty Sr., who died yesterday morning at his home, will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at Zwingli church. Rev. A. R. Achtemeier, pastor will officiate and burial will be in Highland cemetery. Friends may call after 1 p. m. Saturday at the Voegeli funeral home.

Mr. Marty was found dead at his home and death was adjudged suicide by Coroner Herman A. Stuessy.

Born in Mt. Pleasant Township on the Marty homestead farm, Nov. 4, 1891, the son of Conrad and Anna Elmer Marty, he attended Exeter school and one year at an engineering school in Austin, Minn.

On Nov. 28, 1918 he was married to Alma Rufer in Washington township. They have always lived on a farm in Mt. Pleasant township, from 1924 to 1948 on the homestead farm and later on a adjoining farm where they retired. He was a member of Zwingli church.

Surviving are his widow; a daughter, Mrs. Harry Keegan Jr., Brodhead; three sons, Marvin, Monticello; John C. and Richard, Albany and a brother, Henry, Monticello.