Brought Here For Burial

Mr. and Mrs. Darel McCaslin, of Madison, mourn the death of their infant daughter, Charline Mae, which occurred at their home in that city on Thursday of last week.

The child was born at Albany on Nov. 12, 1918, and had been ailing more or less since birth. The remains of the little one were brought to Monticello Saturday morning and taken to the home of its grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wichser, where brief funeral services were held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Rev. Muehlmeier officiated. Interment was in the old cemetery.

Besides the bereaved parents, the baby is survived by one brother, 15 months old.
