J. Leslie Moore Dies In Madison Hospital

Funeral Services at 2 P. M. Friday in Madison, Burial There

J. Leslie Moore, aged about 70, a resident of Exeter township practically his entire lifetime, died Wednesday morning in a Madison hospital after a lingering illness which had extended over the past several years.

Mr. Moore, who was born in Exeter township, had always resided there until a few months ago when he and Mrs. Moore moved to Theinsville to take up their residence.

Survivors besides the widow are two sisters, Mrs. Nancy Richards, Belleville, and Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace, Howarden, Iowa.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Friday at the Frautschi funeral home in Madison. Interment will be in Forest Hill cemetery there.
