Fred Muehlethaler, Aged 45, Passes Away This Morning

Fred Muehlethaler, aged about 45, a native of Switzerland, who had made Monticello his home for the past 12 or 13 years, passed away this morning in the Monroe hospital following a long illness from an incurable disease.

Before entering the Monroe hospital some weeks ago, Mr. Muehlethaler was a patient for several months in the Wisconsin General hospital, Madison. He first became ill at Juneau where he was in the employ of Wm. Dobson, formerly of this village, who operates a hotel there.

During his residence in Monticello, Mr. Muehlethaler was employed for several years in the Monticello hotel and also assisted off and on in other local soft drink parlors. He was also employed on the county road.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Voegeli funeral parlors. Rev. A. Muehlmeier will officiate, Burial will be in Highland cemetery.
