

Lorraine D. Olson

Lorraine D. Olson, age 70, of Friendship, Wisconsin, formerly of Monroe, died Thursday, August 31, 2000 at the Monroe Clinic Hospital.

Lorraine was born August 29, 1930 in Monticello, the daughter of Arthur and Lena E. (Baumann) Block. She attended Monroe High School and married Milford C. Olson on September 24, 1948 at Camp Lejeune, N.C. Following their marriage Lorraine and Milford were active duty military and lived in various locations before moving to Monroe in 1968. Lorraine worked at Dorman Cheese for many years before moving to Friendship in 1990. She was a member of Grace Lutheran Church, Monroe. Lorraine was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and enjoyed flowers, gardening, and reading.

Survivors include her husband, Milford of Friendship; three daughters, Myra (Robert) Kuhse of Havelock, NC, Rene (Ron) DeHaven of Orangeville, IL; Dawn (Brian) Davis Sr. of Eau Claire; seven grandchildren, Selena, Travis, Chris, Richard, Nichole, Courtney, and Brian Jr.; two brothers, Dwayne Block of Necedah; Vernon (Lucille) Block of Fremont, CA; and a sister, Lois (Henry) Heinzelman of Monroe.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Irene Heinzelman; and four brothers: Wilbert, Kenneth, Delbert, and Eugene Block.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, September 5, 2000, at 11 :00 a. m., at Grace Lutheran Church, Monroe, with Rev. Gail Heidtke of Grace Lutheran and Pastor Steve Barr of the Evangelical Full Gospel of Freeport officiating Interment will be in East Clarno Cemetery, Clarno Township.

Friends may call on Monday from 4 to 8 pm. at the NEWCOMER FUNERAL: HOME, Monroe. A memorial fund will be established in ' Lorraine ' s name for Grace Lutheran Church.