

GUY F. REASA

Guy F. Reasa, age 82, Monticello, died Saturday, October 12, 2002 at the Monroe Clinic Hospital.

Guy was born December 27, 1919 in Sylvester Township, Green County, Wisconsin, the son of Edward S. and Leona (Frie) Reasa.

He graduated from Monroe High School in 1937. Guy entered the U.S. Army on March 6, 1942, and was honorably discharged on November 26, 1943. He married Carol E. Broughton on November 22, 1944 in Albany. Guy and Carol farmed in Exeter Township until 1968. He then worked as a maintenance man and was a school bus driver for Monticello Schools until retiring in 1995. Guy was a member of Monticello American Legion Amstutz-Marty Post #256 and enjoyed flowers, gardening, and woodworking.

Survivors include his wife, Carol, Monticello; a daughter, Catherine (Willis) Nipple, Albany; a son, Michael (Carol) Reasa, Brodhead; seven grandchildren; a great-grandson; and a sister, Joyce (John) Trutman, Brodhead.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Family and friends gathered on Tuesday, October 15, 2002, at the Voegeli-Newcomer Funeral Home, Monticello.

Burial will be in Hillcrest Cemetery, Albany, at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, a memorial fund will be established in Guy's name for the Monticello Library.
