Jacob Toller Passes at County Farm

Jacob Toller, aged about 76 years, a resident of this vicinity for a long term of years, passed away Wednesday, Sept. 13, at about 3:30 p. m., it has been learned. He passed away at the county home in Monroe, which he entered last year. Mr. Toller was buried in the cemetery there.

Mr. Toller, a native of Switzerland, came to America when a young man, accompanying his parents to New York, where the family remained for a number of years. He assisted the family with farming operations during the time he spent in New York state.

Upon coming to Monticello Mr. Toller became a mason's helper and also did railroad work. Later he was employed by the Rolph Bros. Lumber company, working for this firm many years. He made his home on the lumber company property and also officiated as night watchman.
