

Mrs. Edwin Wallom, 77, Expires Friday; Rites Held Monday

Feb. 10, 1878 – July 22, 1955

Funeral services for Mrs. Edwin Wallom, 77 years of age, esteemed lifelong resident of Monticello, who passed away at her home here at 8 Friday evening following a long illness, were held at 1:30 Monday afternoon at the Evangelical United Brethren church here.

The Rev. Paul J. Gibson, pastor, officiated, and burial was in Highland cemetery. Pallbearers were Henry J. Elmer, George V. Griffey, Ora Prisk, John Van Houten. H. A. Walters and Willard Prisk.

Mrs. Wallom had been an invalid for 25 years and her condition in recent months became increasingly critical.

Born in Monticello Feb. 10, 1878, Siddie Dell Brayton was the daughter of Sidney and Mary Pratt Brayton. She attended the Monticello schools. On June 19, 1900, she was united in marriage to Edwin Wallom. She lived in Monticello all of her life except for the first two years of her marriage, during which they resided in Monroe. Mr. Wallom was employed by the Karlen & Steinmann Lumber company here for many years until his retirement.

Mrs. Wallom was a member of the Evangelical United Brethren church and when her health still permitted she was active in the Sunday school and Missionary society of the former Methodist church here

A quiet, home-loving type of individual Mrs. Wallom was always held in high esteem by her many friends and neighbors.

She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. A. W. Peterson, Chicago, and Mrs Frank Riese, Monticello; one son, Claude, Monticello; one brother, Joe Brayton, Monticello; one sister, Mrs. Sally Wright, Monticello; four. grandchildren and three great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by one brother and three sisters.
