

Jacob Wittenwyler

Jan. 19, 1844 – Nov. 30, 1922

Jacob Wittenwyler, Civil war veteran, and for years one of the well known and highly respected residents of this village and vicinity, passed away at his home in this village at 5:30 o'clock this morning, his death following a period of failing health which had its inception two or three years ago. He suffered from a complication of disorders and for some weeks all hopes of his recovery had been given up.

Funeral services will be held from the home at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, with services at the Reformed church at 1:30. Rev. Muehlmeier will officiate.

A suitable obituary will appear next week.
