

KATHLEEN WORLEY WORKMAN

October 12, 191 - April 28, 2003

Kathleen Worley Workman, age 86, of New Glarus, formerly of Monticello, died Sunday, April 28, 2003 at her home surrounded by her loving family.

Kathleen was born in Auburn, Alabama on October 12, 1916, to Gordon and Jesse(Cosper) Worley. She was a 1937 Smith-Hughes graduate with a B.S. in Home Economics from the University of Texas at Austin. She taught High School in Mexia, Texas. Kathleen married Charles Garrison Workman in Austin, Texas and they celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary on August 26, 2002. Following her marriage, she served in New York City churches, taught bible classes in Harlem, Yorktown, and Hell's Kitchen for the Council of Churches, was a nurse's lab assistant at Columbia University, substitute taught in Texas and Iowa, and worked as the library aid at Huegel School in Madison. She also was a member of TTT, PEO Sisterhood, and many church circles. Kathleen and her family moved to Monticello in 1970 where she was a member of Zwingli United Church of Christ.

Kathleen and Charles were blessed by four wonderful children: two daughters, Kathleen (Richard B.) Arthur of Dallas, Texas, and Marilyn (Jim D.) DeKoster of Waterloo, Iowa; and two sons, Edward Workman of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Bruce (Kathy) Workman of Monticello. Additional survivors include fourteen grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and two sisters, Louise W. Miller and Eugenia W. Schoch, both of Austin, Texas.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, Dr. Gordon Worley Jr.; and two sisters, Willie D. Bowles and Frances M. Winter.

Memorial Services will be held Friday, May 2, at 2:00 p.m, at Zwingli United Church of Christ in Monticello with Rev. Lawrence Balleine and Pastor Mary Gafner officiating. Family graveside services will be held in Highland Cemetery, Monticello. There will be no visitation. The family will greet friends following the service in Zwingli Fellowship Hall.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Music Ministry of Zwingli Church or Monroe Clinic Hospice.
